

Talk Program organized

Aug 12, 2018

The third series of a talk program between NBL high officials and renowned personality in the national level concluded here in the NBL Head Office. In this program the invitee guest was Mr Bhojraj Pokhrel –the ex Chief Election Officer and Ex Home Secretary as well presented on what matters on leadership. On the presentation Mr. Pokhrel stressed on the need of transparency, inclusiveness, uniformity between saying and doing, honest work habit for the successful leadership. Credibility counts more rather than qualification and right for success, he further added. Earlier Mr. Devendra Prtap Shah –the CEO of NBL had delivered welcome address. ‘ As , the Bankers are rational human being having capacity of transforming the society, country and the world as a whole ;they should not be confined in debit credit only ;we hope this type of refresher program would contribute on enhancing productivity and help shouldering the responsibility of transformer of society as well. ‘ Mr. Shah made a special remark . There was good presence of then deputy CEO, Assistant Executive Officer and senior Officers of Bank in the program conducted with the facilitation of Ashwin Pudasaini –the Manager of NBL organized at the conference hall of Training and Development Dept of Bank.

(By Mukunda Aryal – press coordinator NBL)